BILLY JOE PRIKE

Why should I think when others think for me.

WANETA WALTERS

Happy-go-lucky, what's her fate? Don't stop to ask her she's got a date.

KENNY DANIELS

Generally speaking, I am generally speaking.

DONNA FAYE ARZBERGER

The only way to have a friend is to be one.

ETHEL ROCKWELL

She need not worry, she already has her man.

HAROLD LONG

Don't study, fellows, I make enough A's for all of us.

HAZEL FELDMAN

Seen but not heard.

WILMA JEAN HATCH

Why wait until the work is done--now is the time to have your fun.

ALLADENE MOONEY

Loyal to one.

ROBERTA RHYNERSON

Women of few words are the best women after all.

NAOMI HAMMETT

Think she is quiet, oh no, get her started; then watch her go.

HAROLD PEASE

Little words of wisdom; little gobs of bluff, make the teacher say, "Set down that's enough."

NORMA LEE KEITH

It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice.

BARBARA HAYS

Let tomorrow do its own worrying.

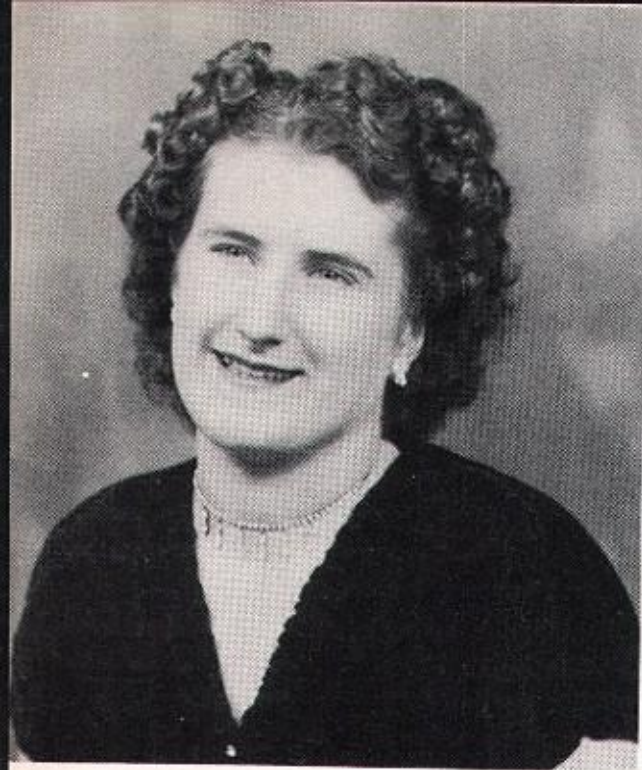

JACK BOYD

Football his specialty; love his side line.

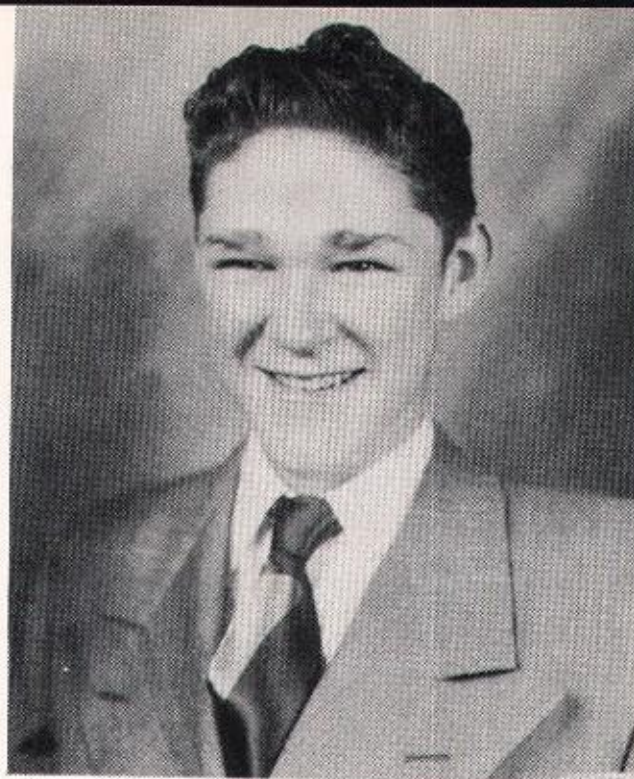

CLARA SWANN

Hey, have you heard this one.

KATHRYN NEWMAN

Always a willing worker.

ALLEN CRISLER

Fine, friendly--in short the best.

ELSIE MAE MARQUIS

Don't do today what you can do tomorrow.

MARY MASCHLER

She has lots of ideas but they don't seem to work.

CHARLIE LAMASTER

Girls are terrible disappointments.

MARGIE JOHNSON

Has an opinion of her own and never fails to speak it.

KATE BARRETT

Giddy, giggling, girlish, gay; may be serious some future day.

EDWIN BUTTS

Likes nothing better than to pretend he is intelligent.

LILLIAN SURBAUGH

True to her work, her word, her friends.

Senior Class Will

We the Senior Class of 1951, being in full possession of sound mind, memory and understanding, (in our own estimation), and being about to depart from this world of goodly things, do hereby write and publish our last will and testament.

Donna Faye Arzberger wills her height to Christina Sullivan.

Kate Barrett wills her Monday night date to Betty Massey. Six nights a week are enough.

Jack Boyd wills his ability to make a certain junior girl late for her classes to Edwin Benson.

Edwin Butts wills his interest in a certain junior girl to Junior Clay.

Allen Crisler wills his ability to get in all girl classes to Bill Pratt.

Kenneth Daniels wills his black wavy hair to James Shaffer.

Hazel Feldman wills her quiet refined ways to Ethel Johnston.

Naomi Hammett wills her job of lunch counting to Juanita Brown.

Wilma Jean Hatch wills her interest in a certain farm boy north of town to Doris June Bond.

Barbara Hays wills her high soprano voice to Phyllis Maschler.

Margie Johnson wills her place as librarian for four years to Sid Bullock.

Mary Anne Knox wills her ability to get out of school at the age of 16 to Duane Capehart.

Norma Lee Keith wills her quiet girlish ways to Esther Phalen.

Charles LaMaster wills his manly figure to D. J. Rash.

Harold Long wills his good grades to Raymond Potts.

Elsie Marquis wills her place as homecoming queen to Donna Karr providing she gets the required votes.

Mary Maschler wills her seat in Advanced Math to the next unlucky person.

Alladene Mooney hasn't anything to will. She is perfectly happy with everything she has.

Kathryn Newman wills her ways of a dignified senior to all of the junior class.

Harold Dean Pease wills his ability to play basketball to Clayton Carothers.

Billy Joe Prike wills his carload of girls to Richard Wade, also his car in case Richard's breaks down.

Roberta Rhynerson wills her ability to have a freshman boyfriend to Phyllis Gage.

Ethel Rockwell wills those letters she gets each day from a certain someone to LaVerne Smith.

Lillian Surbaugh wills her seat in American History to Berle Trinkle.

Clara Swann leaves her giggles in shorthand to Joan Modesitt.

Waneta Walters wills her chief interest, which happens to be in Paola, to Hilma McRae.

Names of all characters (?) whose names appear in this document are fictitious, and any resemblance to actual persons, living or dead, is purely coincidental!!!!!!

Senior Class Prophecy

Through a modern device that enables us to look into the future by ear, rather than eye, we have collected these facts of our talented class of 1951. Brace your shoulders as you hear of our undesirable fates.

Donna Faye Arzberger is the very successful instructor of the music department in the Podunk Polytechnic and Daniels Institute.

Jack Boyd has graduated from college and is back at L. R. H. S. as Assistant Coach in charge of the girls' physical education class.

Edwin Butts is scheduled for a fight with Ezzard Charles for the skinny weight championship of the world. We hope he wins!

Allen Crisler is a traveling salesman and he really gets around--selling helicopters.

Hazel Feldman has just married her sixth husband and hopes this one doesn't perish from her cooking.

Naomi Hammett has almost cinched the role "Carmen" with the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Margie Johnson is scheduled for a lecture over ICU..C.Me. The lecture will be on "Beasts--Including Men."

Waneta Walters is now banging Jr. the third over the head for not practicing his piano lesson.

Harold Long is back at L. R. H. S. teaching American History while Mr. Handley is out farming his two acre petunia patch.

Kenneth Daniels is a Naval Officer--next in rank to Admiral Nimitz.

Kathryn Newman is president of the Farlinville College for Men.

Charles LaMaster, after studying engineering in college, is digging ditches along the streets of LaCygne.

Elsie Mae Marquis is working in the Soapy Laundry Business. She is head of the Button Breaking Department.

Mary Maschler has set a world's record. She has gone for 10 years without chewing gum.

Ethel Rockwell has one of those "lived happy ever after" lives.

Alladene Mooney has an interesting life. She is fourth vice-president of Decimal Points for Johnston, Johnston, Johnston, and Johnston.

Harold Pease is truck farming in Western Kansas. He gives special attention to his little crop of Peas.

Billy Joe Prike has graduated from New York State Agricultural College and is now instructor of a class of 25 farmerettes.

Roberta Rhynerson is head clerk of the men's ready to wear section of the Dixie Shop.

Lillian Surbaugh who was tired of baby-sitting with her sister's kids is now baby-sitting with her own.

Clara Swann (it isn't Swann now, of course) is working for Metro-Goldwyn Mayer. She polishes the tenth vice-president's secretary's spectacles.

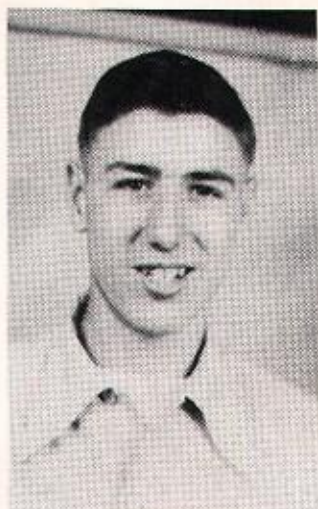

Barbara Hays is now the private secretary of a certain naval officer stationed overseas.

Mary Anne Knox got tired of sitting at home so she decided to follow her husband. At the present they are living in Africa.

Wilma Jean Hatch is running around the Square trying to catch her little Blocks.

Norma Lee Keith who after reviewing her diary of high school days has just published a book entitled, "Dull Hours and Happy Moments."

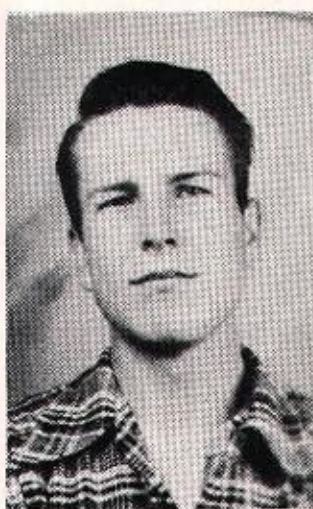

Kate Barrett is an airline hostess for the Sneeze and Snort Air Lines. Her husband is the co-pilot.

Seventy-one girls have membership in the La Cygne Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America this year. The officers include: President, Donna Faye Arzberger; Vice President, Norma Lee Keith; Secretary, Waneta Walters; Treasurer, Bettve White; Historian, Ethel Rockwell; Song Leaders, Barbara Hays and Wilma Jean Miller; Pianists, Virginia Thomas, and Carolyn Wilhoit; Reporter, Patricia Petock and Parliamentarian, Elsie Mae Marquis. Mrs. Glen Hays and Mrs. Opal Miller are the club mothers and Mrs. Handley is the chapter adviser.

The third year Home Economic girls are shown working on their woolen projects. They study units in first aid and home nursing, history of costumes, leading designers, structural and printing design of textiles, stenciling, removal of stains, and clothing budget.

The second year Home Economic students are taking inventory of foods and vegetables they canned during the year. They studied units in luncheon, dinner, canning, vitamins. They prepared and served formal and informal meals, and planned meals to meet their own energy requirements.

The freshmen girls are shown modeling aprons. They study units in the use and care of the sewing machine, hand stitches, color, and design.

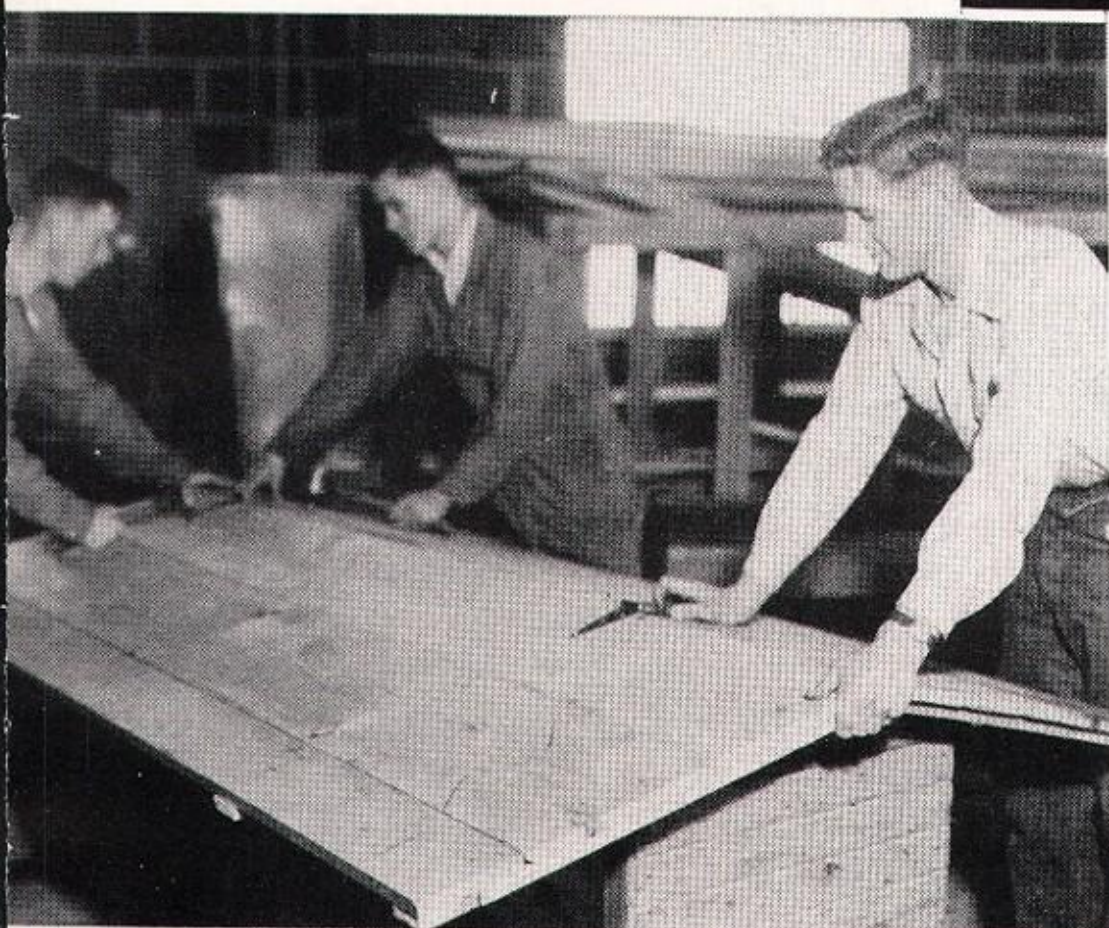

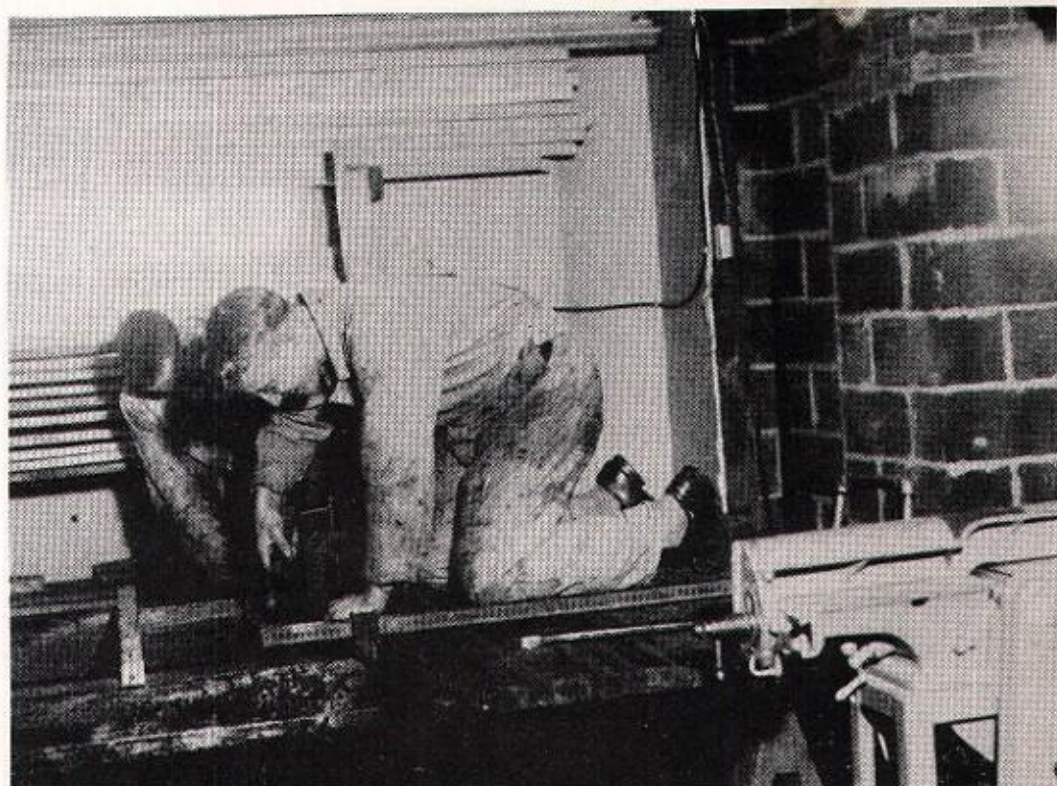

F. F. A.

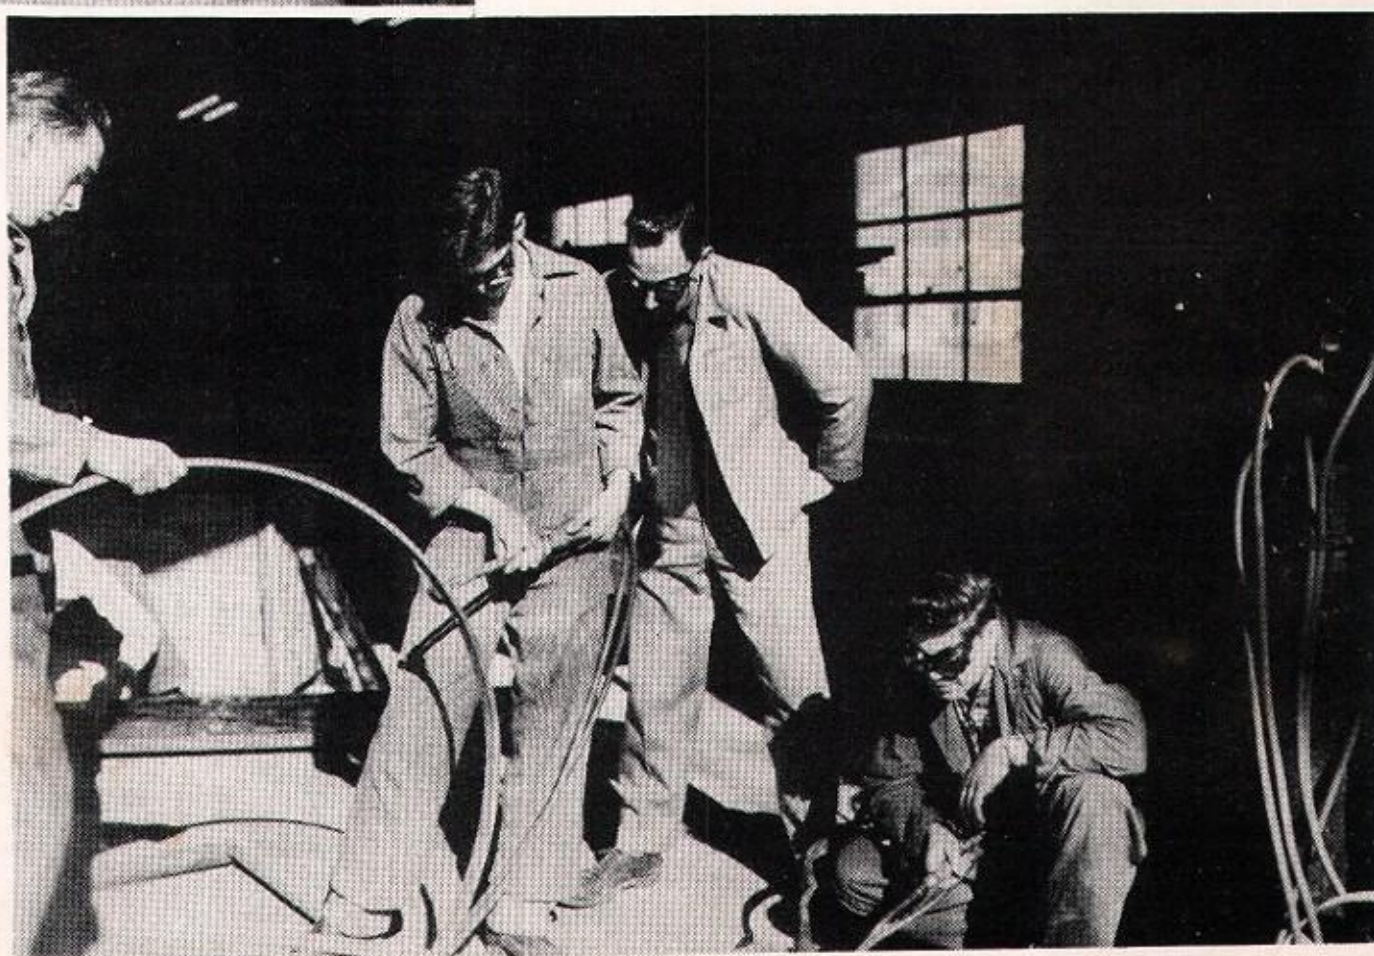

Thirty-five boys have membership in the La Cygne Chapter of the Future Farmers of America this year. The officers include: President, Billy Joe Prike; Vice President, Davie Driskill; Secretary, Donald Brown; Treasurer, Bill Gomerding and Reporter, Gerald Stoker.

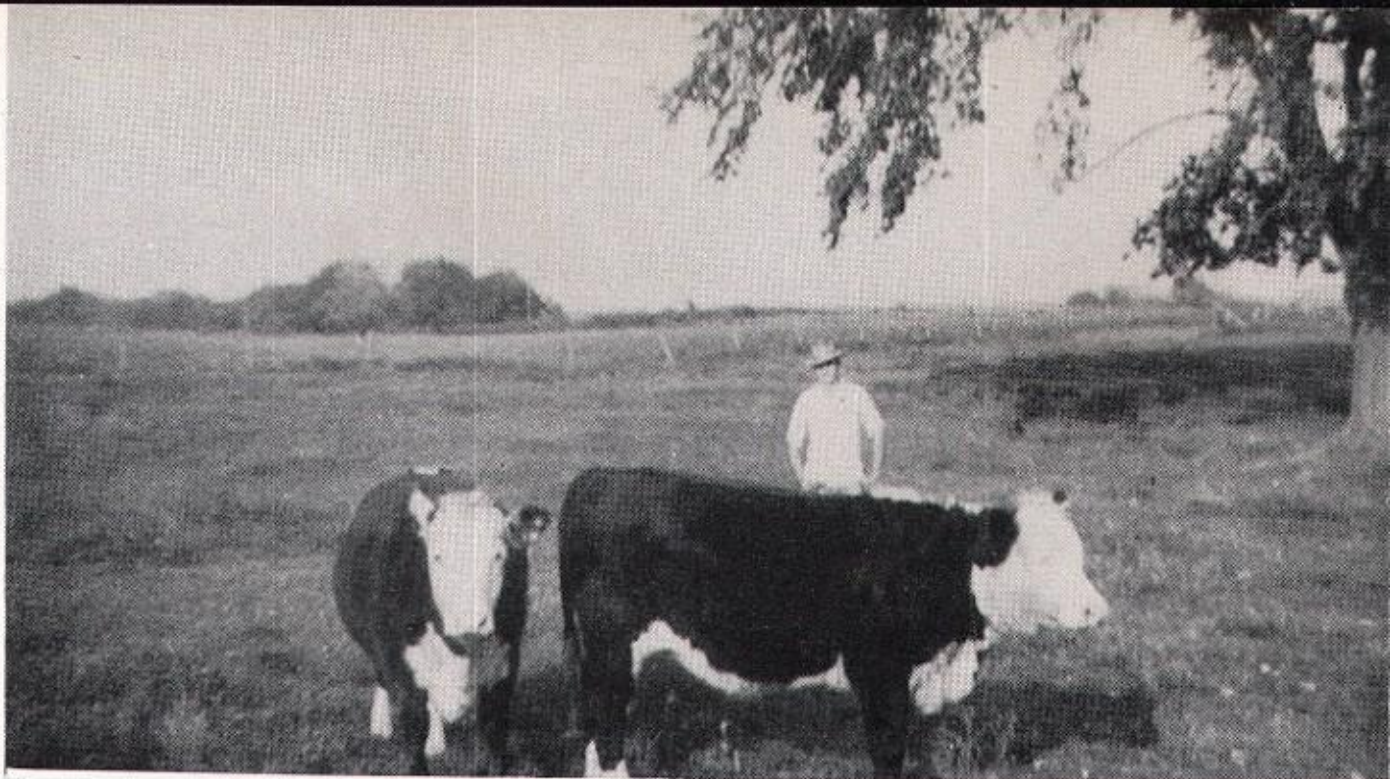

Shown below are the officers displaying the blue ribbon which they received when they won first place in the district leadership contest.

Vocational Agriculture

The Hays' Boys are shown with their project which consists of a Duroc gilt and litter. The gilt was donated by the Chamber of Commerce.

FIRST ROW: Donald Brown, Duane Capehart, Kenneth Daniels, Davie Driskill, and Bill Gomerdinger. SECOND ROW: Hilma McRae, Donna Karr, and Minnie Lowmaster.

This is the second year this course has been offered under the supervision of Mr. Kasper. The car was provided by the Judy Chevrolet Company of Pleasanton.

The 1950-51 Indian football team went on the warpath to gain a co-championship of the Linn County League and compile the best won-lost record since football reopened in L.R.H.S. after the war.

The Fort Scott B team was the first to attack the Indian village but the fighting braves defeated them 26 to 6. Then the Indians went on the warpath defeating Bronson 18 to 6; Blue Mound, 32 to 0; Paola B, 32 to 12; and Louisburg, 32 to 0. Then the Indians donned their warpaint and invaded Pleasanton, their arch rival. When the dust cleared the Indians had won a hard fought battle by the score of 14 to 0. The Indians then invaded Parker and, although they were ahead most of the game; when the final whistle sounded Parker was ahead 14 to 13. Spring Hill then tied LaCygne 13 to 13, but the red and blue tribe came back to defeat Mound City 13 to 6 to assure them of a tie for the championship.

started at ten o'clock but for the La Cygne band it didn't start until almost eleven o'clock as it was approximately one mile long and it took one and onehalf hours to pass.

They marched thirteen blocks with the crowds pressing close on both sides. The parade included the queen's procession, college floats and the bands. As they stood waiting for the parade to start they observed uniforms of the other bands. There were red and blue uniforms; gold and black; blue and white; red and gray; and all shades of these colors. There was one band with green uniforms. It was the only color that was not in any of
